

The AIR MILES Youth Empowerment Grant

▪ Deadline to submit is August 14, 2020

The Air Miles Youth Empowerment Grant focuses on empowering youth under the age of 24 in Canada. “The program is committed to investing in charitable organizations that impact each element of a young person’s journey.”

Grants consist of the following:

- Grants of $10,000 OR
- 50,000 Air Miles, with a partnership agreement of one year.

This program invests in activities that focus on youth facing barriers, and falls within one of the four pillars of the Air Miles Youth Empowerment Program;

1. Removing the barriers to basic needs
2. Providing equitable access to education and learning
3. Preparing youth for future employment opportunities
4. Fostering leadership development among youth from all communities

“Due to the impacts of COVID-19: We recognize that all non-profit organization are facing significant burdens as they continue to support vulnerable populations. To help organizations in these unprecedented times, we have removed restrictions on how much funding can be used for administration and operational costs. We hope this provides valuable flexibility for your organization. “

Eligible applicants:

- Must be a recognized federally registered charity with the Canada Revenue Agency
- Must be financially sound and have a high standard of accountability and transparency
- Must be aligned with the theme of youth empowerment
- Contributions must go towards meeting demonstrated community needs in Canada
- Must deliver measurable results (outcomes & impacts) and provide an annual report

Turnaround time: Decisions are made approximately 5 weeks after submission.

Any Questions? Contact us at info@dogoodfundraising.ca or call 647-710-4261

